WHAT A CONTRAST!

THE CARPET-BAG REGIME IN THE UNITED STATES SENATE.

"Mack" is in Washington, writing letters for his paper, the Cincinnati Enquirer. The following sketch of the United States Senate, as he finds it to-day, will be read with interest:

CARPET-BAGGERS.

Entering the gallery to the Senate Chamber on Thursday afternoon, after an absence of six months from its sacred precincts, the first fact that forced itself upon my notice was that the prophetic utterance of Mr. Seward, as to the "vacant chairs," had been almost fulfilled. We all remember with what touching pathos the venerable and variable Secretary alluded to these "vacant chairs" at an early stage of the late "sectional cosines," and how he hoped the erring brethren would come back and fill them. Well, the erring brethren haven't come back to any perceptible extent, but the vacant chairs are filled, nevertheless.—And what a "fill" is there, my countrymen!

There is no need of any searching investigation into personal histories to reveal the style of men these carpet-baggers are. It requires no very astute student of human nature to pick them out, one by one as they sit in seats to which they have no more right than George Francis Train to the British throne, Gadd is to the kingdom of Heaven, or Ben Butler to the spoons he stirs his coffee with. You can tell them at a glance by the look of out of placishness of which they can not dispossess themselves let them try ever so hard. They are scattered on the outer edges of the chamber—here and there wherever a seat could be found; or room made to put one in. The position was to them a gift horse, and they had heard of the injunction against looking such an animal in the mouth. So Warner, of Alabama, squats contentedly and obscurely on the extreme right, and feebly bellows about "the people of my State."—Directly opposite, and so near the door that he is apt to be mistaken for a messenger, one of the "honorable members from Arkansas" unfolds himself to public gaze, and every now and then rises to present a petition from a constituency he never saw, and in behalf of a State he never lived in.—And so on to the end of the chapter. But the carpet-baggers of the Senate will soon deserve pity instead of contempt.

When the first flush of reconstructionary enthusiasm is over, they will cease to have respect even of the Radicals, whose political offsprings they are. "How do you like carpet baggers," said I to a Radical Senator yesterday. "Oh, they have behaved as well as could be expected," said he, putting into his tone a good deal more than was in his words, and which I construed in the form of appendix, thus: "They must keep their peace and not put on any airs, or we'll teach them manners." It is said that Sumner makes them keep a very respectable distance from him, and denies them that freedom of intercourse which they were led to expect from the great apostle of equal rights and the inextinguishable yeller for suffrage. The fact is, Sumner is disappointed and chagrined that they are all white; and it must be agreed that a slight mixture would be a great improvement on the class of men that have been chosen thus far. Garrett Davis said, a year ago, that nothing would reconcile him to negro suffrage as soon as the election of a first class and intelligent negro to succeed Mr Sumner, and on the same principle, I think the substitution of black Senators for white carpet-baggers would be a step in the right direction.

So much for the carpet-baggers, but what of the Senate as a body? You will search history in vain—through its precedents as well as its revolutionary pages—to find a parallel for the degeneracy of that body, in all the attributes that fit it to make laws for a great nation, or that should command for it the respect and veneration of a great people. Compare the Senate of ten years ago with the Senate of to-day, and the difference is very great, indeed; date the comparison ten years further back, and there ceases to be any resemblance, except in the name. A fit inscription for the entrance door of the Chamber of 1868 was written long ago to express the decay of virtue and greatness in the representative of one of Rome's great men: "Stat magni nominis umbra"—it stands the shadow of a mighty name. There is extant an engraving entitled the United States in 1850, which tells the whole story when viewed in the light of to-day. It represents Henry Clay, in the delivery of one of those powerful speeches, which always commanded the attention of the floor, and the wrapt admiration of the galleries. His associates are closely gathered about him, as if to catch every word that fell from his lips.

It is easy to recognize Calhoun, Webster, Benton and Douglas in the groups. They are all gone now, and who have taken their places? For Calhoun we have a carpet-bagger, around whose name there is said to be a halo unenviable to honest men, and not unconnected with sheriffs, penitentiaries and the like. For the grandeur and dignity of Webster we have the classic idiocy of Sumner, or the indigent inanity of Wilson. For the culture and statesmanship of Benton we have the boreous and sonorous emptiness of Drake; and for Douglas, the bold champion of popular rights, we have Yates in a constant vibration between temperance and tremens. These are but few specimens which the attempt at comparison forces into my mind, as I write this hasty letter. Were I to turn over the pages of some old Congressional dictionary, I might easily extend it to every State in the Union, as represented twenty years ago, and now, in the Senate of the United States. There are exceptions, of course, but scarcely enough to prove the rule—which is the indebtable bravado Chandler or the gilt edged imbecility of Sprague.

Prussian military chemists have reduced nitro-glycerine to a condition available for military use, and grenades filled with it and shot from guns of moderate caliber are said to have smashed the strongest cuirass that ever covered the sides of an iron-cased ship. Nitro-glycerine has been reduced to a solid by precipitation. The continuous fluidity of this dangerously explosive fluid is considerably diminished, while its force remains unimpaired. As the utmost caution has heretofore been absolutely necessary in handling nitro glycerine, the value of the discovery is exceedingly important.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you can see some very strange advertisements. Some are they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedented low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of Individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but say, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at E. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

$1,000,000!

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK, ... President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS, ... Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE, ... Secretary.
D. F. FACKLER, ... Consulting Actuary
DANIEL AYRES, M. D., LL. D., Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. F. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

LIFE INSURANCE.

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

Hon. E. A. BULKELEY, President,
AUSTIN DUNHAM, Vice "
T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.
H. W. STJOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Policies Insured in '67,	15,251
Am't Insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	2,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,120,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Policies at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Descriptions of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

A Most Wonderful and Successful Invention!

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

Awarded the highest Testimonial wherever Exhibited.

Rev. M. W. STAPLES, Inventor and Patentee.

THIS BOILER is self-acting, and dispenses entirely with labor and the wear of clothes. The hot suds and steam by the action of Rye are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing it perfectly without any rubbing. It has been thoroughly tested, and pronounced unequalled as a Clothes Washer, by those who have used it.

All fabrics, from the finest lace to the bed-blanket can be washed perfectly and with ease and without the aid of the rubbing-board. For Flannels it is invaluable, as the pulsing, rolling and pressing process must necessarily full them more or less.

It is truly a labor and clothes saving invention. Washing will no longer be a hardship, and washing day no longer a terror and a dread to housewives.

The invention can be used in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

The saving in the wear of clothes will soon pay for the outlay.

It is estimated that 200 to 300 gallons of boiled suds pass through the clothes in thirty minutes; this being the longest time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes.

Hundreds of these Boilers are being sold each week, giving perfect satisfaction.

Every Boiler sold guaranteed to do all we claim, or money refunded.

Can be seen in full operation at Lougee & Brother's.

ALL STATE

RAILWAY LINES, (THAT USED TO BE!)

THE OLD RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD, THE SHORTEST, QUICKEST, SAFEST AND BEST LINE, NORTH AND SOUTH, TO BE LEFT OUT IN THE COLD, UNLESS SHIPPERS SPECIALLY SAY VIA. R. & G. R. R.!

WE inaugurated and are the Great through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers, North and south, for the last ten years, as the ten Thousand Shippers in North and south Carolina will testify. We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come $60,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

NOTICE!

DIGEST OF NEWS.

Gold closed in New York, last evening, at 1.34¼

Cotton closed at 26

North Carolina Bonds quoted as declining,—there being no funds in New York to meet the January interest. How is this?

The Legislature re-assembles on Monday next.

The Newbern Republican mentions a rumor that young Mr. Douglas, Gov. Holden's Private Secretary, will obtain a lucrative position abroad from Gen. Grant. We presume that the rumor is put forward as a feeler.

The same paper says that the Bishops of the Methodist Church South, have written a letter to Gen. Grant, &c., &c., congratulating him on his election. This, of course, is not true. These political Bishops belong to Bro. Pepper's Church, the M. E. Church, North.

The "loil" Commissioners of New Hanover have named one of the townships "Holden".—The Wilmington Journal very appropriately suggests that it would have been better to have confirmed the selection of names from the same "kind," than to have cast a reproach, as these Commissioners have done, upon the spotless and illustrious names of Caswell and Harnett, by such an association.

The "faithful" in Newbern are in a great stew over the coming municipal election. They have two candidates for Mayor, hold nightly meetings, abuse and cuff each other, and otherwise illustrate the beauties of Radical reconstruction. It is a Kilkenny affair, in which no decent man feels any interest, except in the wish that the combatants may devour each other.

Some interesting developments are progressing in Washington as to the manner in which information from Richmond was procured by the Government during the war. It appears that parties were in constant pay of the United States who regularly reported all important proceedings in the Confederacy—even the proceedings of the Virginia Legislature while in secret session.

Mr. George Peabody has recently donated another $100,000 to the poor of London—his public benefactions thus far amount to over ten millions of dollars. He has given four millions to the London poor, for one item; two millions to the cause of Education in the South, &c.

The Supreme Court of Georgia has just given a decision sustaining the decision of a lower Court which held that the consideration of a note given for borrowed Confederate money was a good and valid one. The plea was the failure of consideration, in that Confederate money was an illegal currency—not money, or any other thing of value.

However Courts may adjudicate in the matter, it is given out that President Johnson, in his recent amnesty proclamation, did not intend to relieve Arnold, Mudd, Spangler and other prisoners confined for complicity in the assassination of President Lincoln, of the penalty of their crimes.

The Richmond Whig says that influences are at work among the highest Virginia circles to organize measures for the ending of sectional strife on the accession of the new administration, and for the settlement of any rational demand that may be made upon the Southern people.

A school teacher near Chattanooga, Tenn., was assaulted some days ago for having whipped one of his pupils, and in the affray that ensued four persons, including the school teacher were killed. The only person in the party who escaped unhurt was the school-boy who originated the trouble.

Russia wants the United States to join in the proposed conference of European powers, on the Greece and Turkey question. For our part, we have no objection to sending a dozen iron-clads into the Mediterranean to help the Cretans wipe out Turkey. Its war against Crete is disgraceful to the age, and should not be permitted by civilized nations.

The Alabama Legislature has passed a law outlawing and subjecting to the penalty of death, at anybody's hands, any person found abroad in a mask or disguise. Masked balls will be dangerous places of amusement to engage in thereabouts, according to this. What sort of a country is this getting to be?

The President gave a party to his grandchildren, at the White House, a few evenings since. It was a grand affair, at which the little folks present, several hundred in number, enjoyed themselves hugely. Grant's children were invited, but "Pa" wouldn't let them go, because he is not on amiable terms with the President, and doesn't wish to be. "Let us have peace."

The Rev. Mr. Pitcher, of Detroit, who objects to undraped statues, furnishes thereby a new instance of the truth of the proverb, that small Pitchers have long ears.

Two blacks to one white is the average of deaths in Charleston for some time past.

OH! THE RING, THE RING!—THERE'S TROUBLE IN THE RING!

Capt. Elias Bryan, of Chatham, sold the Penitentiary site to the Ring. He covenanted to make a fee simple title to the land; but the Captain is a married man, and the laws of North Carolina make his conveyance void. The act of March 2, 1867, declares:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That every married woman shall be entitled to one third interest of all the lands, tenements and hereditaments of which her husband is or may be seized and possessed at any time during coverture—in which third part, shall be comprehended the dwelling house in which her husband and family usually reside, and commonly known and called the mansion house; together with the offices, out-houses, building and other improvements thereunto belonging or appertaining; which third interest shall not be subject to seizure on execution for the payment of any debt of her husband, during the term of her life: Provided, That said interest shall not attach to any lands that may have been bona fide conveyed by the husband previous to the passage of this act.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That no alienation by the husband, with or without the covenants of warranty, under the provisions of this act, shall have any other, or further effect, than to pass his two-thirds interest in the same: Provided, That upon the wife joining with her husband in the deed, and acknowledging the same, according to the provisions of existing laws, being privately examined touching her free consent in the execution of said conveyances, any or all of said land may be sold and conveyed; and that the Chairmen of the Courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, as to the lands located in their respective counties, shall have the same power to conduct such examination as is now given by law to the Judges of the Supreme and Superior Courts, and the certificate of such Chairmen, touching lands in their respective counties, shall have the same force and effect as if signed by a Judge.

In this case, no deed has been signed by Mrs. Bryan, nor can one be obtained from her. Upon the erection of the Penitentiary, she will be entitled to one third to the value of one third of the land.

Some twelve miles from this purchase, is the eight thousand acre tract, sold by Dr. McKay to the Ring, at 55 cents an acre, and then sold by the Ring to the State for $12.50 per acre—one hundred thousand dollars for the tract. The "Ring" was so "hot on its mush," so eager to put its paw upon its prey, that it made a deed to the State before the deed was delivered to the Ring by Dr. McK'y!

The last news from Oxford is that Gen. Littlefield paid Mr. Robt. W. Lassiter, the Senator from Granville, $7,000,—at the rate of twenty dollars per acre—for land so poor that the very squirrels go about crying, all the Fall, because of the scarcity of food. A Granville man declared to us that he would not give fifty cents an acre for the land, and that if a kildee grazed upon it, he would get so poor that Lassiter would have to let down the fence to drive him off the wheat, for he would not be able to fly! Now this much is of record: Mr. Lassiter belongs to the Committee, who purchased land for the Penitentiary,—giving one hundred thousand dollars for land that had just been purchased for a comparative pittance.

Question for the Legislative Investigating Committee: Does Gen. Littlefield belong to the Ring?

We cannot tell who belongs to the Ring, but we know that Dr. Love does not. He belongs to the Investigating Committee.—That Committee can, and, we hope, will render such service to the State, as will make all Radical doves mourn, that they were not turned out, and declared banned by the Howard amendment.

While this public, brazen, bare-faced swindle goes on, where is the Governor?—We know that he is not much upon finance, or political economy, or any thing else, except writing editorials in the interest of faction and self and "plotting for heads." While this swindle was going on, the Governor and Mr. William Smith, President of the North Carolina Road, were no doubt "plotting" for the heads of Section Masters employed on the Road, and examining their political opinions, instead of their sections and work.

We have known the Governor to issue proclamations and write letters and manifest great zeal in matters of much less importance; and now, while the Treasury is thus being plundered, he is as dumb as an oyster and as close as a clam!

SEPARATING THE PEOPLE FROM THEIR GOVERNMENT.

The superintendence of the people over their government, over their President, over their Governors and their Judges, was never questioned, until now. This high prerogative of the people is older than the government itself. It is a privilege, or rather a principle, which was claimed by the people of England, and for centuries has not been denied them. Hear the new doctrine laid down by "Judge" Tourgee, in his insolent letter relative to the Grand Jury of Orange, denying their right of surveillance over their servants and over their government:

"I fear (says the Judge) that some evil one might suppose that I was capable of permitting a Grand Jury to make a presentment to me in open Court, in which they insulted myself, the Court in which I sat, my brethren on the bench, the government of the State and the United States, common decency, and common sense, and that I lacked the nerve to punish such high handed contempt as it deserves. Not while I live, and have the power to speak or write, will that be the case."

Has "your Honor" forgotten that the Grand Jury of this country once presented King George? Did you never read the presentment made by Thomas Jefferson, and signed by John Hancock, and the whole American Grand Jury, including Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, and Roger Sherman, the shoe-maker? King George had the same fears, which seem to disturb your "Eminence." When the American Grand Jury presented him, "he feared that some evil person might suppose that he was capable of permitting a Grand Jury to make a presentment of himself," upon his own throne, in which they insulted his brethren who wore crowns and sat upon thrones! "Not (he said, we may imagine,) while I live and have power to write and speak," and command Cornwallis, and buy Hessian soldiers, "shall that be the case."

Yes, the very fathers of the Grand Jury who presented "your Honor" presented King George, and helped to whip him, too. In 1771, the fathers of the Grand Jury of Orange, who presented "your Honor," made three of King George's Judges fly from the bench and leap from the Court House window to the woods, that they might escape the wrath of an aroused and indignant people. This was done upon the very spot where "your Honor" was presented.

The lawyers were not so fortunate, as the Judges; they did not escape, until they had received wine and-thirty on their bare backs. Yes, "your Honor;" they scourged better men than the Judge who rides the Seventh Judicial Circuit.

The Grand Jury dealt kindly with "your Honor." At Guilford, your first Court, you gratuitously insulted nineteen out of twenty of the white men who heard your political homily, which you called a "charge" to the Grand Jury, imputing to those who espoused the Confederate cause the crimes which your own black friends were committing throughout the country. You avowed yourself a partizan from the bench. Did ever Judge, as you did, adjourn Court, and, during the recess, bandy vituperation and abuse with a low member of the bar on the hustings? Can any Judge, or any decent man, except Judge Dick, Judge Settle and Judge Cloud, who put you forward as a candidate for Congress, justify such behavior in a Judge, while riding his circuit?

You dismissed the Jury at Caswell Court, because there were no negroes on it.—When you ordered the Sheriff to summon a new Jury, he summoned all white men, and thus you were insulted again.

Has it come to this: That "your Honor" would put a Grand Jury in jail for presenting Congress and the United States, when they (Congress and the United States) sent a rogue, as a Bureau officer, to the county of Orange,—not to enforce the Constitution or to execute the laws, but to execute the "will of the nation," or his (the Bureau officer's) will upon the people? For money, Crocket, this officer, acting in the name of the United States, turned two felons, the Watsons, out of jail upon the Grand Jury who presented Congress and the United States. That Grand Jury owe, and they pay, allegiance to the government of the United States. The government of the U. S., in return, owes them protection. When they fail to get it, they should complain—they ought to complain—they did complain, and they did present.

But "your Honor" complains that Judge Reade was presented. Well, who made him Judge, but the people of Orange?—Every member of the Grand Jury voted for him; every vote in Orange, white and black, was cast for him. They asked, they expected, no favors of him; all they wanted was that he should administer justice, as he swore to do; yet when the representative of the people of Orange, Dr. Allison, presented his credentials and would have taken his seat in the Legislature, Judge Reade forbade it, or rather prevented him, by requesting him, with others banned by the Howard amendment, to stand aside for the present, implying they would come in directly. Now it is said that judge Reade caucused and consulted with certain political tricksters beforehand, and agreed that he would act just as he did in this matter. His duty was to have sworn in every member who offered his certificate of election.—If Dr. Allison, or any other member, had taken his seat wrongfully, it was the duty of the House to expel him. The House, by the Constitution, is made the Judge of the election and qualification of its members, and not Judge Reade. The Grand Jury was as unanimous, therefore, in presenting Judge Reade, as they had been in honoring and voting for him.

We have not heard that Judge Reade, like Judge Cloud and "your Honor," has complained of being presented. Judge Reade did not, however, have the judicial ermine thrust suddenly upon him by the negroes, as did "your Honor." He won his honors by diligent and laborious toil. He "slowly climbed the steep where fame's proud temple shines afar."

First he was a Squire in the county of Person; then he was Confederate States Senator; then Circuit Court Judge; then Supreme Court Judge; and then he "carried us all home," as President of the Convention. We remember, at Person Court, when Judge Reade was only a Justice of the Peace, or Squire, as they are called in that county, the late Judge John M. Dick, after trying the State docket, left Court, as "your Honor" did at Orange, without trying the suits on the Civil docket. Judge Reade, then only a Squire, placed in the hands of Sheriff Smith, of the county, a BENCH WARRANT to arrest Judge Dick! The Judge, however, made his escape from the county before Sheriff Smith could serve the warrant,—and now "your Honor" would put eighteen Grand Jurors in jail for gently presenting Judge Reade!

"Your Honor" will find, before you ride another Circuit, that judicial interference in politics, and even judicial dereliction of duty, while they may be exempt from punishment, have no exemption from presentment.

DEATH OF REV. BASIL MANLY, SR.—We have heretofore briefly mentioned the death of this well-known and useful Divine. The Charleston Courier gives the following particulars of his death and a short sketch of his life:

"He died in the town of Greenville, in this State, on Monday last, the people of that place evincing every respect for the memory of one who had so universally endeared himself to the people of South Carolina as Dr. Manly, by his winning and eminent traits of character and practical usefulness from early manhood among them, had done.

Dr. Manly died of pneumonia, but for some time past had suffered from paralysis, and otherwise from that impaired and declining health usually attendant upon advanced years. He was born in North Carolina, in 1798, and at the time of his demise was in the 71st. year of his age. He entered the ministry at an early age and soon proved himself to be as distinguished in the fields of useful secular acquirements, as he was profound in theological lore.

Dr. Manly was a man of great depth of piety, but withal was so very amiable in disposition and approachable to every one, that even the young and gay sought his companionship and counsel.

He accepted the pastoral charge of the First Baptist church, in this place, in 1826, filling that position very acceptably and efficiently till 1837, a period of eleven years. Dr. Manly was then called to the Presidency of the University of Alabama, and for a length of time served that seat of learning with a zeal and an ability that added greatly to its already distinguished usefulness and high tone. He again accepted a call to this city in 1855, and assuming the pastoral care of the congregation of the Wentworth street Baptist Church, administered that trust for four years, returning again to Alabama, and engaging mainly in preaching and agricultural pursuits.

Thus has lived and passed from his great usefulness and the church militant here, to the church triumphant in Heaven, the Rev. Basil Manly, D. D., as pure a man and as beloved a Divine, perhaps, as any whose death we have ever felt ourselves called on to chronicle.

In remembrance of his many shining virtues, and of our great personal regard and esteem for him while living, we claim to mingle our deep sympathy with that of his numerous family and friends, in this their hour of profound trial and sad bereavement."

STEAL, STEALING, AND TO STEAL.

The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, (Rep.) under a head like this, sums up, in substance, as follows:

Seventy two railroad bills introduced into the Senate alone—eight presented at the first short session, fifty two at the second session, and in the two weeks of the present session eleven have been reported and printed; four others across the Continent to the Pacific, with subsidies in all; one from the Northern Pacific, one from the Albuquerque line; one for Mr. Pomeroy's little private Atchison-Pacific; one for two roads south and west from St. Louis, and two or three for Southern Pacific lines from Memphis, New Orleans, and points in Texas.

The correspondent further says:

"Of all these bills fully three-fourths were originated by Republicans. Four Senators brought in nearly half of them. Mr. Pomeroy reported eleven, Mr. Ramsey seven, Mr. Conness five, and Mr. Harlan four. Mr. Pomeroy did not confine his attention to any particular part of the country. He proposed one land grant, through the rich lands about Port Royal, S. C., and another for the benefit of his Wisconsin brethren.—But not desiring to be reckoned as worse than an infidel, he makes full provision for his own political household in Kansas. We find his name attached to a land grant for a railroad from Lawrence to the Mexican line; to three bills for roads from Fort Scott to Santa Fe; to a pleasant arrangement for the Southern branch of the Union Pacific road—whatever that may be—and also to a land grant from Irwing, Kansas, to New Mexico; and all for the national good, of course.

These, it must be remembered, are such railroads as Northern companies, Northern lobby men and Northern Congressmen have concocted—the word concocted is good for most, though a few are meritorious. The Southern States are just beginning to vote, and the scent of Southern men in Congress is now as keen in respect to all material interests as the Northern Congress-man's nose. The reason is evident. Southern smelling is now done with Northern noses. Carpet bags have wrought this change for the South. And, as a result, among the very first subjects to call out bills from Southern men are the railroad interests.

And heading the column comes Mr. Senator Spencer, with a bill making a land grant, not through the public domain, on the plains, but through Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana, with permission to get all the "earth, stone, timber and other materials" for the construction of its roads off the public lands along its line, and to receive ten sections of land to the mile, wherever they can find that amount within twenty miles of the line they may see fit to locate, and from Mobile onward to the western boundary of Louisiana, if the land cannot be found within twenty miles of the road, these patriotic gentlemen are obliged to hunt it up within forty miles north of their line.

What will the railroad docket of the Senate not contain by the time the Southerners have brought up their side of the railroad jobs to the present proud height of their Northern friends, and shall have added to the Washington lobby its own army of blood-suckers, plausible gentlemen of unquestioned honor and thieves!—for it takes all these and more to make a lobby. What a nice thing it will be for tax payers!

All this presents the railroad interest merely in outline. Every bill deserves a separate letter to show the means used to get it before the Senate, the persons engaged in pressing it, and the parties to be benefitted by it; and in due time the principal ones at least will get that chapter.

When the railroad jobs are disposed of, then the deck is only cleared for action against jobs in general. There are, aside from these, the Niagara Ship Canal, with a coupon of twelve millions attached; the Commercial Navigation Company, with half as much on its coupon; the bills and schemes for getting damages paid to Southern men for property destroyed during the war, in all hundreds of millions, and then the lobby upon the more modest sum of five millions due from Southern railroads, and in which Radical Republicans from Tennessee are deeply interested. The Osage Treaty is a nice plum, and one new feature is that some Kansas men who showed a vast amount of righteous indignation over it before their re election, are, now that their places are assured, helping the swindle on. Alta Vela is coming up again, and to crown all things, if it is possible, the change in the Indian Bureau is to be so managed as to place the present Indian ring on a firmer foundation than ever. The Republican party can now afford to rectify the irregularities which have crept into all portions of the government, while the great political battle with rebellion is going on."

DIED.

In this City, on yesterday (Thursday) morning, at about 8 o'clock, MRS HATTIE WHITE HUDSON, the beloved wife of Rev. H. T. Hudson, Pastor of the Methodist Church, in this City, in the 36th year of herage. The demise of few persons has created more general regret and sympathy than that of this excellent woman. Young, lovely and amiable, ardently devoted to Christ and His Church, none knew her but to love her. But she was ripe for Heaven, and met death cheerfully, fearlessly and triumphantly. Her afflicted husband and little son have the sympathies of all.

[Her funeral services will take place this morning, at the Methodist Church, at 11 o'clock. The friends of the family and citizens generally are respectfully invited to attend.]

MISCELLANEOUS.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago its proprietor was not aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, and long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with the mellowed character of the alcoholic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these essays would have precluded the introductions and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however only to have stimulated the rapacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the inducement which his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been claimed by unprincipled humbugs; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements paraphrased, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick for whom the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article manufactured at the sole laboratory of the undersigned, in Holland, is entitled from a variety of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown to the practitioner of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic schnapps in those markets; and travellers, since the days of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that deep, pure up in the Holland dykes, is the best, if not the only guard upon the upward, the agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In conclusion, the undersigned would say that he has produced, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and superior excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guarantees and safeguards, which he designed should protect the public and himself against fraudulent imitations; that he has shown it to be the only liquor in the world that can be uniformly depended upon as unadulterated; that he has challenged investigation, analysis, comparison and experiment in all its forms; and from every ordeal the preparation which bears his name, seal and trademark has come off triumphant. He therefore feels it a duty he owes to his fellow-citizens generally, to the medical profession and the sick, to denounce and to expose the calculating and counterfeit consciences of knavery and his cause upon the press and the public to aid him in his efforts to remedy so great an evil.

The following letters and certificates from the leading physicians and chemists of this city will prove to the reader that the goods sold by the undersigned are as they are represented to be.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 1, 1869

THE NEW YEAR.—Standing, this morning, upon the threshold of a New Year, we salute our readers and tender them all the best wishes of the season. May the joys of the past year be duplicated for them in that which lies before us, and may its troubles and disappointments know no repetition! To one and all—to friends and enemies,—we wish a Happy New Year!

Every individual, in the retrospect of the past, has much for which to be thankful, however his path may have been strewn with cares and sorrows. Thankful that his life is spared,—thankful that hope remains,—thankful, above all, for the great work of Redemption! The season befits such reflections and the indulgence of such grateful emotions. May all,—the care worn and weary, as well as the prosperous and happy,—enter the opening portals of the Temple of the New Year with fresh faith and charity and courage in their hearts, resolved, so far as permitted by a kind Providence, to walk down its corridors and beneath its arches with stout nerves and hopeful spirits.

Because we may not be able to see bright omens, national or individual, in our surroundings, that is no reason why we should distrust the future. To the eye of the individual there may be no ray of light gilding the prospective, but there never will be, if he does not use every exertion of which he is capable to dispel the gloom. To the eye of the lover of his State, the darkness which envelopes her may appear Cimmerian, but let him, and all like him, give themselves to their manful duty, and her deliverance will be effected in all good time. To the friend of his country, there may appear little ahead to cheer his heart or animate his patriotism, but let him be true and faithful to the trust delegated to him by an immortal ancestry, and all will yet come right—"time, at last, will make all things even."

And so, again, tendering to one and all our aspirations for "a better time coming," personally and nationally, we address ourselves to the labors of another year, with the resolve and wish to do the State some service, to minister to the entertainment and gratification of our readers, and to advance the great cause of popular enlightenment and progress!

THE MUSICIPAL ELECTION.—We learn that Collards had a meeting of his sable adherents at Tupper's Church, on Wednesday night, and that there was a howl of indigestion set up over Whitson's being kicked out of the Radical nomination, to makeway for Col. Harrison. Whitson still hangon, and refuses, with more spirit than we thought he could display, to succumb He has been treated very badly by his pty, and has a right to compain.—We list that he is the very best "representative man" they can bring forward.

Whope, as the election approaches, our cities, who desire to rebuke the spirit of partyism who wish to do an act of common ctice, will rally to the support of Mr. Haywd. Elected by the people, he was illegs and arbitrarily ejected from office, at the famous bidding of party, and the peophave it to themselves to put him backed to vindicate their choice.

OFFIRE COMPANIES.—The fidelity and energy with which our Fire Companies have labor at the recent fires in this city demonstrate what they could, and would, accomplish, did they have proper apparatus and ere the public interest otherwise evinced in their organization. We are pleased to learn that the gentlemen composing the Companies propose taking active measures to promote their greater efficiency. They should have new Engines, suitable uniforms and all the paraphernalia usually belonging to such organizations. Indeed, we think that Raleigh ought to have least one Steam Fire Engine. Let the corporate authorities, the citizens in their individual capacities, and, especially, the Insurance Companies, through their respective Agents, move at once in this matter and secure for the city the best possible rotection against fire, by means of the last complete and thoroughly equipped volunteer Companies. It will pay all concerned.

NE ADVERTISEMENTS.—See the announcement of Thomas Branch & Sons, and collateral Firms.

The second Term of Miss Blanche Fentress' school will be resumed on the 4th. inst., in her father's residence on Fayetteville Street. Miss F. is admirably qualified for the business of instruction, and we are pleased to learn that her school is a flourishing one.

Mrs. H. W. Miller's Boarding House: Corner of Newbern and Person Streets, Raleigh.

Douglas Bell, Esq., is recommended as a candidate for Commissioner in the Middle Ward by "Many Citizens."

See Notice by the Medical Society of Raleigh of new arrangement to go into effect from and after to-day.

THE EXECUTIVE MANSION.—We are surprised to learn, (well, no; not surprised at anything, these days) that Mr. C. L. Harris, the Superintendent of Public Works, has moved into the Executive Mansion, with his family, with a view to making that his place of residence! This beats sending the Supreme Court to the cock loft all to pieces. What right has Mr. Harris to occupy the Executive Mansion? What right has the "Governor" to allow him to do so? Let the Legislature look into the matter. We have no objection to Mr. Harris' making himself comfortable anywhere, but this Radical disregard of law is becoming more and more flagrant every day.

THE INJUNCTION CASE.—We learn that the Injunction case against the Public Treasurer and the Chatham Railroad will be argued before Judge Watts, at this City, on Monday, January 4th.

We understand that the Judge will invite the co-operation of the Judges of the Supreme Court.

Hon. D. G. Fowle, Col. E. G. Haywood and R. C. Badger, Esq. will appear for the Plaintiff, and Messrs. Moore, Phillips Merrimon, and the Messrs. Battle, for the Defendants.

HOMICIDE.—Mr. Sidney Parlin, of this county, was arrested, on the day before yesterday, and carried before C. W. Williams, Esq., near Milburnie, charged with the killing of Washington Seawell, a negro, two or three days before. Upon the trial, it appearing in evidence that Mr. Parlin killed the negro in an attempt to arrest him on a charge of felony, he was admitted to bail and bound over to the next term of the Superior Court of Wake, to answer the accusation, in the sum of $2,500. The bail was at once given.

THE HEARTH AND HOME.—We have received the two first numbers of a very interesting paper recently started in New York, by Messrs. Pettingill, Bates & Co., 37 Park Row, entitled as above, devoted to the Farm, Garden and Fireside. Mr. Pettingill is favorably known throughout the country as a reliable and successful agent for the Press, and we have every reason to believe he will make his paper worthy the patronage of the public. Terms $3 per annum.

THE ARMY RE UNION.—We have been looking over the proceedings and speeches at the great assemblage in Chicago of the officers and soldiers of the armies of the West. If we understand them correctly, they are not without significance. They indicate that a deliberate and systematic effort is to be made to organize and consolidate the military spirit; so as to govern the country. The re-union is to be annual, it is constituted into an association, subject to certain rules and regulations, looking to perpetuity. The Society of the Cincinnati, after the Revolution, appears to be the model on which it is founded. The repugnant jealousy of that day was fatal to the Cincinnati, which, after one or two meetings, disappeared before the clamors of popular disapprobation. There are no signs of any such disapprobation at the present time. All the press and everybody else are not able to shout loud enough their enthusiasm over the magnificent display of "the heroes who saved the national life." At the future re-unions, all the members are to appear in full uniform, that the glories of the past may be more vividly present to every mind.

All the military notables of the Western armies were present. The President elect, as head of the army, attended by his staff, honored the occasion with his presence.—General Sherman, as Lieutenant General, presided and inaugurated the ceremonies.—Distinguished generals delivered elaborate orations to the four armies of the West, reminding them of their matchless achievements. And each of these orators took especial pains to impress upon his hearers the important truth that where two men were competitors for office, and one was a soldier—(other things being equal)—the man who had risked his life for the national life was the one entitled to the office—a doctrine to which no reasonable exception would be taken by any except a Rebel.—The military idea was the one predominant one of the occasion, and animated all the proceedings.

In the present condition of the country, and in the cloudy prospect ahead, we are not prepared to say that an organization of this kind may not be attended with beneficial results. Though military, it will be conservative in its tendencies; and in a land, where there are so few conservative elements left, such an Association may work great good, or at least prevent great evil. As only the officers are admitted as members of the organization, we may see there the future Counts and Dukes of the coming Empire; and if that be an inevitable, surely it is better that these Dukes and Counts should be fit and competent for their posts, than that their duties should devolve on boors and blackguards. Politicans, small and great, carpet baggers, et id omne genus, whose eagerness for office is in proportion to their unfitness, may exclaim against a military despotism; but their exclamations will be vain. The sword is master of the situation, and they are as fit victims for it as any that can be found.—Rich. Whig.

OFFICIAL ETIQUETTE.—Referring to the coldness between the President and General Grant, the papers mention the embarrassment on the part of the latter attending the observance of an old custom, or matter of official etiquette on New Year's day, in Washington—namely, the call upon the President which all the officers of the army and navy stationed in Washington are expected to make on that day. It is suggested that General Grant, by his absence from this city on Friday next, will be relieved of this embarrassment.

There is another custom observed between outgoing and incoming Presidents that if observed on the 4th of March will relieve the kind of embarrassment referred to.—Usually on that day the outgoing President notifies his successor of his readiness to accompany the latter to the Capitol, and seats him in the Executive carriage and drives him to the place. If General Grant declines to come in contact with President Johnson on New Year's day because of the unpleasant feeling existing between them, the same cause will, in all probability, induce him to wish to avoid a meeting with Mr. Johnson on the 4th of March. Probably this embarrassment may be overcome consistently with General Grant's practice of avoiding prepared ovations and ceremonies. He may decline the inauguration ceremony, and quietly take the Executive oath before a competent officer, even a justice of the peace, and as quietly take possession of the White House.—Wash. Telegram, 30th.

THE SORT OF LIQUOR THAT IS SOLD AT THE FIVE POINTS.

"Meanwhile, the "Commissioner," who has been down to, and a[illegible]t the Five Points, presents a few samp[illegible]eipts for the manufacture of liquor[illegible]h are said to be perfectly reliable. [illegible]hese the public can judge of the stuf[illegible] is sold over some of the bars of this and other cities:

Whiskey—40 gallons common whiskey, 40 gallons water, 3 gallons tincture of Guinea pepper, 1 quart tincture of pellitory, 2 ounces acetic ether, 1½ gallons strong tea.

The manufacturer, the World goes on to say, not content with making an imitation of the genuine liquor from pure spirits, must needs reduce the alcohol so much by the addition of water that it becomes necessary to resort to the alternative of giving the spirit a fictitious strength by the addition of Guinea pepper, pellitory, or grains of paradise. This method of adulteration imparts a burning taste to the spirits, and by the ignorant is considered as evidence of strength. By this means the dealer makes eighty five gallons imitation whiskey out of forty gallons of common whiskey, by adding to the latter forty gallons of water charged with pepper, etc., and mixing in sufficient heading.

Holland Gin—25 gallons pure proof spirits; 1 gallon gin essence; 1 quart white sugar sirup. Mix thoroughly and filter if necessary.

Brandy—40 gals. pure spirits; 1 drachm of cognac oil; 1 pint of spirits of raisins; 1 pint spirits of prunes; 1 drachm tannin powder; 1 oz acetic ether; 3 drops oil of neroli dissolved in 95 per cent alcohol.—Color to the desired tint with sugar coloring. This makes a brandy of which there is not a particle of imported liquor.

Madeira Wine—20 lbs. figs mashed up; 50 lbs. raisins; 20 oz linden or tilia flowers, with the leaves; 3 drachms Turkish rhubarb; 10 grains aloes; 3 gals. sugar sirup.

Infuse the above ingredients for ten days in thirty gallons of spirit, then reduce it to the proper strength by adding ninety gallons of water, and filter.

Sherry Wine—70 gallons Sherry wine, 100 lbs. sugar, 40 gallons spirits, 200 gallons water; agitate or stir up the above compound for several days.

Santa Cruz Rum—45 gallons New England rum, 5 gallons Santa Cruz rum, 4 drachms of Vanilla essence.

Jamaica Rum—60 gallons pure proof spirit, 1 lb. rum essence, color with burnt sugar."

DR MUDD AND THE OTHER SUFFERERS.—A Washington letter in the Baltimore Gazette says:

"There is good reason for believing that President Johnson has concluded to finish up the work of amnesty, and that right early, as the opinion of three members of his Cabinet to-day urged him to do so. It was argued that consistency demanded that those guilty of lesser offences should not be allowed to suffer in prisons while free pardon was granted to all those who have been fortunate enough to escape imprisonment. A distinguished gentleman, in a position to know, strongly intimated this afternoon, after the regular Cabinet meeting had adjourned, that the political sufferers at the Dry Tortugas would soon be released from their imprisonment. Mr. Johnson expresses great gratification at the spirit in which his late proclamation has been received by the whole country—a few sorehead politicians only excepted."

The Rev. R. B. Sutton, formerly well-known in Alabama, announces the opening of the sixteenth term of his school at Pittsboro', N. C. Let the good old North State be no longer named after "the hero of Sleepy Hollow. She is certainly wide awake to all educational interests. Her St. Mary's Hall has for many years been a model of its kind. Col. Bingham's School for boys is said to have no superior; and knowing him as we do through his Latin and English text books, which are now almost universally used, we are ready to believe any report of the institution under his direction. Long may the North State continue to raise up virtuous sons and daughters for her own service and to enrich the population of her neighbors.—Montgomery (Ala.) Church Register

The speculation about a new apportionment of members of Congress for Maryland, Kentucky and Missouri, seems to be based upon the idea that Congress has before it the facts necessary to authorize a new apportionment at once; but it should be remembered that the apportionment and recent election of congressmen has taken place under existing laws of Congress, and that body will have no foundation for further action until a new census shall be completed. Until this census is taken it cannot be known to Congress officially what number of male citizens over twenty-one years of age are excluded from exercising the elective franchise.—Wash. Telegram, 30th.

"Why do women spend so much time and money on dress?" asked a gentleman of a belle. "To worry other women," was the diabolical but truthful reply.

Bucklesbury for Lease.

I WILL LEASE this valuable estate in the County of Bertie, N. C., for a term of years, and will sell, on time, the TEAMS, TOOLS, and PROVISIONS, now on hand, at valuation. The estate is extremely valuable and contains some one fourth of which is now under cultivation; the remainder heavily timbered. The buildings are cabins, adapted only to laborers, but in good repair.

3,000 ACRES OF LAND,

To a man of family I will lease, connectedly, my FERRY PLANTATION, some five miles distant, upon which there is a convenient and well appointed residence. Attached to this place is a FISHERY.

THOS. GOODE TUCKER,
Nov 18-wtf Gaston, N. C.

Assignee's Sale of Valuable Real Estate.

THE LAND BELONGING to Dr. M. T. Linton will be offered at public sale, by his assignee in bankruptcy on THURSDAY, the 4th of January next at 11 o'clock A. M.

The sale will take place at the residence of Dr. Pointon the land will be put up, without reserve, to the highest bidder, for CASH, and no postponement will be made.

The land contains about sixteen hundred acres, is situated near the town of Halifax, N. C. on Great and Little Quankey Creeks and partly on the line of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad. The soil is naturally free and fertile, but has been much reduced by bad tillage. There are large quantities of marl on some of the land, and all of it can be easily improved and made good Corn and Cotton land. When of it is well adapted to truck farming, and nearly the whole of it is equal to any in America for the cultivation of the grape. To any person who desires to invest capital in "Grape Culture," no better opportunity can be offered.

The land will be sold in several separate tracts, in one of which there is the best mill site in Halifax county, affording an inexhaustible supply of water power, with building stone sufficient for the erection of dams and mills.

Dr. Pointon will take pleasure in guiding persons over the land, who may wish to inspect it with a view to purchase.

JOHN J. LONG, Assignee.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

PURELY A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:

Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $230,942.08.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash systems, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in checking the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

THE

EQUITABLE LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY, OF NEW YORK

THE rapid advancement of "THE EQUITABLE," to the very front rank of American Life Insurance Companies, the unprecedented amount of its new business for the year ending September 30th, 1868, being over the large accumulation by it of EIGHT MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, together with an annual income of FIVE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, afford the very best evidences of its popularity, success and reliability.

FIFTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS,

A brief comparison of the Society's business for the first nine years of its organization, will best illustrate its remarkable progress.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 1, 1869

AT TWILIGHT.

We sit by the window, my baby and I,
In the fading sunset light,
Watching the darkness creep over the sky,
Out of the Eastern night;
We see the stars come trembling out
In the track of the fallen sun,
And we feel the quiet, either and without,
That comes when the day is done.

What have we been doing all day, all day,
This happy morning mine?
Playing at work and working at play,
God help us mother and child!
But much I fear those little hands
Have put me to shame to-day;
For God, who is earnest, understands
Truly our work and play.

I think of kindness left undone
That might have brightened the day;
Of duties crowned of a never begun,
Scattered along my way;
You lie with peace in your violet eyes
You have not learned regret—
For the sorrowful years that make us wise
Have not come to my baby yet.

And still, as I sit in this twilight hour,
At the close of a weary day,
Even sorrow and sin do not quite have power
To keep a blessing away—
A blessing that falls like the dew from heaven
On the parched and thirsty ground;
And in loving much, because much forgiven,
My deeper peace is found.

Your life, my baby, is just begun,
And mine is growing old;
But we're children both in the eyes of One
Whose years are all untold—
He holds us both in His loving hand,
He pardoned all our sin,
And, by-and-by, to the same sweet land
He will gently let us in.

GET MARRIED.—Voltaire said, "The more married men you have, the fewer crimes there will be." Marriage renders a man more virtuous and more wise. An unmarried man is but half a perfect being, and it requires the other half to make things right; and it cannot be expected that in this imperfect state he can keep the straight path of rectitude any more than a boat with one oar or a bird with one wing can keep a straight course. In nine cases out of ten, when married men become drunkards, or when they commit crimes against the peace of the community, the foundation of their acts was laid while in a single state, or where the wife is, as is sometimes the case, an unsuitable match. Marriage changes the current of a man's feelings, and gives him a centre for his thoughts, his feelings, and his acts. Here is a home for the entire man, and the interest of his better half keeps him from erratic courses, and from falling into a thousand temptations to which he would otherwise be exposed.—Therefore, the friend to marriage is a friend to society and to his country. People about to marry, who wish to know the proper age, are referred to the following precedents: Adam and Eve, 0; Shakespeare, 18; Ben Johnson, 21; Franklin, 24; Mozart, 25; Dante, Kleper, Fuller, Johnson, Burke Scott, 26; Tycho Brahe, Byron, Washington, Bonaparte, 27; Penn and Sterne, 28; Linnæus and Nelson, 29; Burns, 30; Chaucer, Hogarth, and Peel, 32; Wordsworth and Davy, 34; Aristotle, 36; Sir William Jones and Wellington, 37; Wilberforce, 35; Luther, 42; Addison, 44; Wesley and Young, 47; Swift, 49; Bullon, 53; Old Parr, last time, 120. These are good precedents, ranging from Adam and Eve before they were a year old to the veteran Parr.

THE BREECHES OF FAME.—Byron said that fame consisted in having a "damned bad picture and worse bust." There are men (of course we all know that) who have greatness thrust upon them. Disraeli, in his "Curiosities of Literature," tells of a remarkable instance of this sort, where a man's breeches were the source of his fame. In the days when it was considered "very religious to be very dirty," the mendicant friars were held in high esteem. Disraeli says: "One saint attained to such piety, as to have near three hundred patches on his breeches, which, after his death, were hung up in public as an incentive to imitation."—"The evil that men do lives after them," and how many tattered and miserable remnants of reputations our politicians will have to flout the sky withal after their death.—Butler's worn-out breeches of impeachment will then be our only reminder of that bold political beggar. But he who moralizes demoralizes, and so we refrain from proceeding with the subject.

READ STATEMEMENT.

BY PERMISSION, I publish the following receipt and statement of settlement of Policy No 81,927, for $5,000, on the life of Mrs. M. S Hutchinson. The insurance had not been in force six months at the time of the decease of the insured.

" one note returned	10 00
" interest on note	6.58
Cr. By Policy No. 81,927		$5,000 00
" one dividend		14 00
	$5,142.00
		$5,143 00

"Received at Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 13th, 1868, of S. D Watt, General Agent of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, five thousand one hundred and forty-two dollars, in full payment of Policy No. 81 927 and dividend and I hereby surrender all right, title and interest in the same to said Company.

(signed) JOHN HUTCHINSON,
Of Newbern, N. C."

It will be seen by the above, although the party had been insured but six months, yet one-half the premium was cancelled by an anticipated dividend. In this staunch old Company, Policies are paid in full, deducting only the interest on notes from last payment until time of death of the assured.

This Company exercises great care in the selection of its risks, and although the Company has been represented in this State nearly two years, and has been doing an extensive business, the above is its first loss.

CAPITAL OF THE STATE,

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

FIRST CLASS NEWSPAPER.

Strangers in the City will find it to their advantage to call in and get a

WINTER OUTFIT.

THE REASONS WHY:—Here is the LARGEST ASSORTMENT in Raleigh,

Here is the STYLE;

Here the "ONE PRICE" system is strictly adhered to;

Here are the LOWEST PRICES in the City;

He sells for CASH; therefore, high prices are not essential to success. The man who pays his money at this House contributes nothing towards paying bad debts made by others who "never mind the price."

Great pains taken in fitting the customer, and polite attention shown under all circumstances.

AN ACT

IN RELATION TO THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF CLERKS OF SUPERIOR COURTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That as this act will be incorporated in the general act respecting the practice and procedure of the Courts, required to be reported to the General Assembly at its present session, by the commissioners appointed for that purpose, it will be printed in the general act and not elsewhere among the acts of this General Assembly, unless otherwise hereafter directed.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of State is required to have the third section of this act, and that portion relating to the Superior Court Clerks, printed at least weekly in four papers published in the state, and the sum necessary for that purpose is hereby appropriated from any monies in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. The terms of the several Superior Courts of this State shall begin in each year at the times hereinafter stated, and shall continue to be held for two weeks (Sundays and legal holidays excepted), unless the business shall be sooner disposed of.
